[Day 02] London

Start the day with a walking tour around the city, passing through London attractions such as The London Eye, Big Ben, Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Whitehall, St. James' Park, Buckingham Palace as well as River Thames. In the afternoon, visit the famous British Museum and if time permits, St. Paul's Cathedral. Along the way, enjoy views of Tower Bridge as well as Tower of London, a historic castle located on the north bank of the River Thames in central London which played a prominent role in English history and served variously as a palace, an armoury, a treasury, a prison, the home of the Royal Mint, the home of the Crown Jewels of England as well as the setting to many bloody battles among the British Monarchs. Evening is free at leisure for you to experience the dazzling night scene, head for a River Thames Cruise or attend a musical with some new-found friends.

[Day 03] London → Cambridge → York (350 km)

Head over to visit University of Cambridge, one of the world's oldest universities and leading academic institution, comprising 31 autonomous colleges and over 150 departments, faculties, schools as well as other institutions. Explore the university's grounds which is set amidst pastoral landscapes, picturesque rivers, wooden footbridges, cobblestone courtyards and medieval buildings; before continuing on to York, a true medieval melting pot of Roman, Saxon and Viking heritage. The city holds 1900 years' worth of history in its ancient walls and show the rustic side of Britain. Visit York Minster, the largest gothic cathedral in Northern Europe; and thereafter, step up onto York City Walls which dates back to Roman times. For those keen to discover the little grass-root shops, there will be ample time to explore.

[Day 04] York → Edinburgh → Glasgow (400 km)

Leave York and head north to Edinburgh, Scotland's compact but fascinating capital, where we are expected to arrive in the afternoon. A perfect representation of Scottish heritage - wooden barrows of gold single malt whiskey, checked kilts as well as Scottish bagpipes will make one grow fond of this warm and lively nation of quirky characters. Visit Edinburgh Castle which is set on a bed of volcanic rock where once inside, admire the oldest surviving set of crown jewels in the British Isles. Thereafter, continue this royal trail with a visit to Holyrood Palace, City Hall as well as the Royal Parks. Optional is a visit to the café where J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter was penned, to enjoy a cup of coffee.

[Day 05] Glasgow → Gretna Green → Lake District → Manchester (360 km)

In the morning, we'll head back across the border to England and along the way, visit Gretna Green, a village in the south of Scotland that is famous for "runaway marriages" since 1754. Due to its romantic wedding traditions dating back over centuries, Gretna Green is one of the world's most popular wedding venue. Thereafter, continue on to Lake District in the North West of England, a picturesque landscape of rolling hills, stunning lakes and beautiful foliage. Each year tens of thousands of visitors travel here to see the thousands of years of geological changes reflected in its lakes, valleys, mountains and waterfalls. Here, you may opt to join a cruise on Lake Windermere or hop off to explore the World of Beatrix Potter Attraction. End the day with a drive to Manchester, a city that is not only well known as the city of sports and the headquarters of Manchester United, but also as England's most productive industrial city. Football fans can enjoy a pilgrimage to Manchester United Old Trafford grounds to catch a training game while food lovers are spoilt for choice with a wide array of scrumptious restaurants at the nearby Chinatown.
