Sample itinerary :

Day 01 _____ / PHNOM PENH (No meal)

Upon your arrival in Phnom Penh International Airport, you will be met by our local representative and thereafter, transfer to your selected hotel for check-in. Rest of the day is free at leisure for you to explore the city.

Day 02 PHNOM PENH (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, begin the day travelling approximately 40 kilometres slightly north of Phnom Penh, over scenic backroads, passing rural villages, local pagodas and scenic rice paddies to a small mountain that rises from the flat countryside. Oudong Mountain, the capital of Cambodia for 248 years until it was moved to Phnom Penh in 1866, played host to the crowning of several monarchs, including Ang Duong and his son, Norodom, the great-grandfather of the current king, Norodom Sihanouk. Nothing remains of the old city today, but the site, scattered with shrines and chedi, remains an important site for pilgrimage. Climb to the top of the stupa-covered hill; marvel at the magnificent views over the plains below; and learn about the town's key historical events that took place centuries ago. After lunch, head over to visit the village of Kompong Luong before returning to the capital. Once the royal port for Oudong, the village is home to generations of silversmiths that has been for centuries, famous for its silverworks. Watch the villagers at work, carrying on centuries old tradition whilst using relatively unchanged equipment to handcraft cups, bowls and all manner of small boxes in animal and fruit designs.

Day 03 PHNOM PENH (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed on a sightseeing tour around the city visiting the Royal Palace - one of the impressive and colourful Khmer-style Palaces which was built in 1866 by the predecessors of King Norodom; Silver Pagoda that displays plenty of Buddha Statues that are decorated and made with diamonds, emeralds, gold as well as silver; and Toul Sleng Genocide Museum which was used by the Khmer Rouge as a detention as well as torture centre in the late 1970s; before heading over to Phsar Toul Tom Pong – a traditional Cambodian market that is often referred to as the Russian Market and offers a large selection of handicrafts, woodcarvings, silk scarves, jewellery, musical instruments, etc... After lunch, continue on to visit Wat Phnom – an ancient temple set back just a few hundred metres from the riverfront and sits atop the hill that gave the city its name; and thereafter, journey approximately 15 kilometres South-West of Phnom Penh to Choeng Ek Killing Fields. This place is a chilling reminder of the brutalities of the genocidal Khmer Rouge regime. Along the way, enjoy a photo stop at Independence Monument, a lotus-shaped stupa built to commemorate the country's independence from the French regime and also serve as a memorial to Cambodian patriots who died for their country.

Day 04 PHNOM PENH / _____ (Breakfast)

After breakfast, free at leisure until it is time for your transfer back to the airport for your onwards journey.
