Day 01 _____ / SIEM REAP (Lunch, Dinner)

Upon your arrival in Siem Reap International Airport, you will be met by our local representative and thereafter, proceed to visit Artisan D'Angkor, a handicraft center specializing in teaching traditional crafts to impoverished youngster. Here, you will find everything from elegant stone and wood statues to household furniture. Next, continue on to visit Wat Thmei (also known as Killing Fields Pagoda), a small memorial stupa that contains the skulls of Khmer Rouge victims; the War Memorial Monument which is dedicated to those who sacrificed their lives in the civil war; and followed by a visit to the beautifully decorated shrine of Preah Ang Chek and Preah Ang Chorm which is located just across from the Independence Gardens and The Royal Palace. These sister deities, believed to have been Angkorian Princesses, were originally housed at the Preah Poan gallery at Angkor Wat but were repeatedly moved to keep their whereabouts secret from invaders as well as treasure hunters until they were finally enshrined in their current location in 1990. After dinner, enjoy a little shopping at the night market or head over to Pub Street which is packed with restaurants and bars for a taste of nightlife in Siem Reap.

Day 02 SIEM REAP (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, begin the day with a visit to The South Gate of Angkor Thom, the last capital of the Khmer Empire. Explore the temples inside the walls of the "Great City" such as Bayon, Baphoun, Terrace of the Elephants as well as the Terrace of the Leper King; followed by a small circuit tour of Ta Prohm, a temple with jungle-like atmosphere with a combination of giant trees and extensive roots growing out of the ruins. After lunch, explore the grounds of Angkor Wat, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the "Seven Wonders of the World". Constructed during the first half of the 12th century and encompassing an area of about 400 acres, this awe-inspiring temple is the largest and the best-preserved monument within the ancient city that was the epicentre of the Khmer empire that once ruled most of Southeast Asia. Later in the evening, take a short hike up to the top of Bakheng Hill for a fabulous view of sunset over Angkor Wat and its surrounding rice fields as well as forested countryside; before relaxing and unwinding while enjoying a dinner with Khmer Traditional Show.

Day 03 SIEM REAP (Breakfast, Picnic Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, journey approximately 40 kilometres Northeast of Siem Reap to Phnom Kulen National Park. Literally the "Mountain of Lychees", it is believed to be the birthplace of the ancient Khmer Empire and is considered to be the most sacred mountain in Cambodia. Wind through some spectacular tropical jungle scenery to emerge on the plateau; visit the remains of the three-tiered pyramid temple Prasat Rong Chen that marks the site where the Khmer Empire was founded in AD 802; and thereafter, continue on to the famous "River of a Thousand Lingas". Believed to date back to the 11th century, the riverbed has been elaborately etched with several hundreds of Lingas as well as Yonis while depictions of Hindu deities dotted the area along the river. Take a dip and cool off at one of the waterfalls nearby, enjoy a picnic lunch before returning to the city for a little shopping at a local market. Evening is free at leisure for you to explore the city.
