Sample itinerary :

Day 01 _____ / INCHEON / SEOUL → JEJU (Lunch, Dinner)

Upon your arrival at Incheon International Airport and after clearing customs, please proceed to the Meeting Point area at "Gate 8" on the 1st Floor. Our local representative will be waiting there to welcome you. Begin your trip with a journey approximately 50 kilometres East of Incheon to visit Namsangol Hanok Village - a collection of five traditional Korean houses reflecting the different walks of life from the Joseon Dynasty era that was recovered from different parts of the city and relocated to the northern foot of Namsan; followed by a brief photo stop at Cheong Wa Dae the Presidential Office and Private Residence which is also known as the "Blue House". In the afternoon, transfer to Gimpo International Airport for your domestic flight to Jeju, a volcanic island located southwest of the Korean Peninsula. On arrival, enjoy a sightseeing tour around Yongduam Rock - an unusual lava formation that resembles a dragon head with open mouth soaring 100 meters above sea level, creating harmony with the deep violet-blue sea; followed by a brief photo stop at Dokkaebi-ro or Mysterious Road - see a curious phenomenon where objects as well as liquid appear to roll or flow uphill instead of down. << for tours commencing on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, the entire Jeju Island itinerary will be rearranged to other weekdays instead >>

Day 02 JEJU (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed on a sightseeing tour around the island visiting UNESCO World Natural Heritage Site Seongsan Ilchulbong - one of the most scenic landmarks of Jeju Island to view magnificent sunrises; Seongeup Folk Village - a uniquely preserved village at the foot of Mount Halla that has retained age old traditions and still live behind stone courtyard walls in thatched-roof lava-wall homes; Sumokwon Theme Park - take a look at the different ice sculptures on display at the Ice Museum, have fun crafting your very own masterpiece as well enjoy taking fun pictures with optical illusion art that rendered two dimensional paintings to three dimensions at Bucket List Art; and Jeju Glass Castle - a glass art theme park featuring an exhibition hall, garden and models all made entirely of glass. In the evening, enjoy a little shopping at Jungang Underground Shopping Centre which has over 280 stores and is the only underground shopping arcade in Jeju Island.

Day 03 JEJU → SEOUL / CHUNCHEON / SOKCHO (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, transfer to Jeju International Airport for your domestic flight back to Seoul. Upon your arrival, journey approximately 70 kilometres East of Seoul to Naminara Republic, a tiny half-moon shaped island located in Chuncheon that was formed as a result of seasonal rain as well as the construction of the Cheongpyeong Dam. The famous "first kiss" as well as other important scenes such as the beautiful tree-lined paths from the 2002 Korean drama "Winter Sonata" was filmed here. Thereafter, continue on to Petite France, a French Cultural Village set in the Korean countryside. Adorn with cute and pretty buildings as well as fountain in the concept of famous novella "The Little Prince", this quaint European village is well-known as the filming location of Korean dramas "My Love from the Star", "Secret Garden", "Personal Taste" and "Beethoven Virus" as well as variety show "Running Man". In the afternoon, continue another 100 kilometres East to visit Hajodae Unmanned Lighthouse which sits along a cliff of ancient pine trees approximately 1 kilometre north of the 38th Parallel on the Northeastern coast and overlooks the East Sea, commanding panoramic views of the boundless blue sea as well as the beautiful 1.5 kilometre stretch of white sandy Hajodae Beach with its waves of snow-like surfs below; followed by Daepohang - a bustling port with a thriving live fish market lined with an abundance of shops offering the freshest raw fish, local delicacies as well as dried seafood.

Day 04 SOKCHO / YEOJU / SEOUL (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, start the day with a walking tour at Seoraksan National Park, one of Korea's most beautiful mountain areas that boast numerous valleys well-known for their spring blossoms and fall foliage. Situated on the slopes of Seoraksan, visit Sinheungsa, the head temple of the Jogye Order of Korean Buddhism. Thereafter, continue on to explore Teddy Bear Farm which offers a glimpse into the unique lifestyle of Sokcho in an amusing and innovative way through the use of adorable teddy; before returning to the capital city later in the afternoon. Along the way, enjoy a little shopping at Yeosu Premium Outlets - Korea's first premium designer outlet that showcases a total of 270 upscale stores with a mix of leading designers as well as luxury brands, complete with an assortment of dining and entertainment facilities.

Day 05 SEOUL / YONGIN / SEOUL (Breakfast)

After breakfast, journey approximately 35 kilometres Southeast of Seoul to Yongin to spend a couple of fun-filled hours at Everland Resort. The park is home to over 40 heart-pounding rides and attractions in five theme areas, namely Global Fair, American Adventure, Magic Land, European Adventure and Zoo-Topia. Everland is also known for its gorgeous flower arrangements and beautiful gardens. Thereafter, return to Seoul to explore N Seoul Tower which is perched at the highest point of Namsan. Take a look at the safety fence which is covered with thousands of padlocks - symbols of love fastened there by young couples; as well as enjoy the panoramic views of Seoul and its surrounding areas from the viewing platforms at the 237-meters tall communication tower. In the evening, enjoy a little shopping at Dongdaemun - Korea's largest wholesale and retail shopping district with more than 26 shopping malls, 30,000 specialty shops as well as 50,000 manufacturers. Within the ten blocks of the market area, you can find silks, clothes, shoes, sporting goods, plumbing and electrical supplies, electronics, office supplies, toys and just about everything else imaginable.

Day 06

SEOUL

(Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, explore the bustling Namdaemun Market - First started in 1414 under the reign of King Taejong during the Joseon Dynasty, it is the oldest and largest traditional market in Korea with over 10,000 stores that line the streets around the main southern gate of the old city wall and offers nearly everything under the sun including clothing, food products, daily living essentials, medical supplies, souvenirs, etc... Thereafter, enjoy a sightseeing tour around the city visiting Cheonggyecheon - An 11 kilometre long watercourse running through downtown Seoul that was once hidden by an elevated highway and was restored in 2005 as part of an urban renewal project: followed by Gyeongbokgung - built at the beginning of the Joseon Dynasty by its founder King Taejo, it serves as the principal palace until it was burnt down during the Japanese invasion in 1592. It lay in ruins for nearly 300 years until it was rebuilt in 1865 during the reign of King Gojong, the first emperor of Korea. Next, continue on with a dose of Korean culture by learning how to make Kimchi, a traditional fermented dish which an absolute necessity in every Korean meal; and experience wearing the Korean Traditional Costume "Hanbok"; as well as spend the afternoon shopping for duty-free goods at the National Ginseng Outlet, "HD-1 Tab.Gold" Specialty Store, A-Plus Cosmetics Shop, Lotte Duty Free; before heading over to Myeongdong, one of Seoul's main shopping districts featuring mid-to-high priced retail stores as well as international brands.

Day 07

SEOUL / INCHEON / _____

(Breakfast)

After breakfast, enjoy some last minute shopping at Sinchon Ladies Street - a shopper's paradise located right in front of Korea's first women university. Nicknamed "University Streets of Sinchon" due to its close proximity to a number of private universities, it is packed with copious amounts of clothing, accessories as well as shoes stores offering affordable goods that are in tune with the current trends in Korea. Thereafter, head over to a local product shop for some local delicacies before continuing back to the airport for your onwards journey.
