Our local representative will be waiting there to welcome you. Begin your trip with a journey approximately 50 kilometres East of Incheon to visit Namsangol Hanok Village – a collection of five traditional Korean houses reflecting the different walks of life from the Joseong Dynasty era that was recovered from different parts of the city and relocated to the northern foot of Namsan; followed by a brief photo stop at Cheong Wa Dae the Presidential Office and Private Residence which is also known as the "Blue House". In the afternoon, transfer to Gimpo International Airport for your domestic flight to Jeju, a volcanic island located southwest of the Korean Peninsula. On arrival, enjoy a sightseeing tour around Yongduam Rock – an unusual lava formation that resembles a dragon head with open mouth soaring 100 meters above sea level, creating harmony with the deep violet-blue sea; followed by a brief photo stop at Dokkaebi-ro or Mysterious Road – see a curious phenomenon where objects as well as liquid appear to roll or flow uphill instead of down. << for tours commencing on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, the entire Jeju Island itinerary will be rearranged to other weekdays instead >>

After breakfast, proceed on a sightseeing tour around the island visiting UNESCO World Natural Heritage Site Seongsan Ilchulbong - one of the most scenic landmarks of Jeju Island to view magnificent sunrises; Seopjikoji – a picturesque place by the seashore with winding trail where many Korean dramas such as "All in" were filmed; Seongeup Folk Village – a uniquely preserved village at the foot of Mount Halla that has retained age old traditions where its residents still live behind stone courtyard walls in thatched-roof lava-wall homes; Ichulland – an ecological attraction that is well-known as the filming location of Korean variety show "Running Man" and features Micheon Cave, Subyeon Park, Folk Village, Wild Flower Bonsai Garden, Cactus Greenhouse, etc...; as well as Drama World – a story-experiment drama museum that has sophisticated reproductions of outdoor location filming sites as well as indoor studio broadcasting sets as used in drama filming. Visitors are welcome to try on the same costumes and props to experience the scene. In the evening, enjoy a little shopping at Seogwipo Maeil Olle Market – home to an enchanting traditional indoor farmers' market that was formed in the early 1960s and features more than 200 shops that sell everything from freshly caught fishes to casual apparels.
