After lunch, enjoy an exhilarating ride from the upstream of Kuala Tahan to Kuala Trengganu that promises a wet and wild experience - don't worry, just sit back and let the boatman do the work! Prepare to get drenched as the boat negotiates through seven sets of mild rapids. Thereafter, if circumstances permit, visit an Orang Asli Settlement to discover the simple and nomadic lifestyle of the Batek aborigines. In the evening, enjoy a walk in the jungle with a Nature Tour Guide to see the nocturnal animals and tropical forest comes alive at night. Let yourself be serenaded by the natural rhythm of music orchestrated by the numerous species of insects, birds and animals in the jungle.

After breakfast, proceed on a Jungle Trekking trip to the Canopy Walkway. Hike up the 334-meter Tereseck Hill and enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of Gunung Tahan as well as the forest canopies that cover the hills and verdant valleys below. Experience the world's longest suspension bridge at 50 meters above ground and stretching over 530 meters. Take the opportunity to see the various plants and animals that inhabit the topmost layer of the forest. After lunch, enjoy a boat cruise through Tahan River to Lata Berkoh waterfalls for a dip into the refreshing cascades of cool spring water from Gunung Tahan which forms a natural Jacuzzi. On your return journey, stop by at the Ikan Kelah Fish Sanctuary to feed some fresh water fishes. Stand bare footed in the river and watch as they come to nibble at your feet.
