Thereafter, continue on to visit Camel Republic - a mini zoo cum amusement park with an array of fun rides and features Moroccan-inspired architecture, complete with Persian tiles as well as golden spires, OR explore a slice of picture-perfect Greek Island at Santorini Park - an amusement theme park with boutique-style shopping in an array of nicely presented whitewashed buildings, colourfully painted windows, stone-paved paths as well as domed towers inspired by the picturesque Greek Island. << rides and activities at Santorini Park as well as Camel Republic are optional, at own expense >> On arrival, immerse in the charming and romantic ambience of The Venezia - a unique lifestyle shopping destination with over 360 stores offering a variety of fashion and accessories as well as trendy restaurants and pubs. This 73,600m<sup>2</sup> Venice-inspired theme shopping and attraction village also feature replicas of Venice's most symbolic landmarks such as The Bell Tower of San Marco, Piazza San Marco, Trevi Fountain as well as a 200-meter Grand Canal with the iconic Gondola ride that navigates around the village.

Day 02 HUA HIN (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, start the day with a sightseeing tour around Khao Takiab with its iconic "Chopstick Hill" where one can enjoy the scenic coastlines of beautiful beaches; along with a visit to Wat Huay Mongkol - home to the famous Giant Luang Phor Thuad statue, a Buddhist monk famed for his "miracles" and lived some 400 years ago. Continue on to Sam Phan Nam Floating Market - a large scale market with architecture inspired by the middle Rattanakosin period and features over 200 shops as well as 40 boat vendors offering an abundance of souvenirs and local delicacies.; and thereafter, visit PlearnWan - a vintage village containing two-storey wooden complexes of stylized old-fashioned shop houses, a reminiscent of those that once made up the Thai-Chinese neighbourhoods of Bangkok and Hua Hin. Wander around the classic charms of old Hua Hin and enjoy a little shopping for some local delicacies, vintage merchandise, retro souvenirs, etc... In the evening, enjoy a stroll around Hua Hin Night market for a fascinating insight into the local people's lifestyle where one can find countless stalls selling freshly cooked local delicacies as well as an overwhelming variety of local handicrafts, souvenirs as well as clothing.

Day 03 HUA HIN / BANGKOK / _____ (Breakfast)

After breakfast, visit Hua Hin Railway Station - one of Thailand's oldest railway stations with a long cultural heritage and unique architecture. Its splendid Royal Waiting Room used to be a royal pavilion at Sanam Chan Palace during the reign of King Rama IV which was relocated and rebuilt at Hua Hin Railway Station in 1968. Continue on to explore Maruekhatthayawan (Mrigadayavan) Palace. Often referred to as "The Palace of Love and Hope", this Thai-Victorian summer seaside getaway was constructed in the early 1920s during the reign of King Rama VI using golden teak from the demolished Hat Chao Samran Palace. Set on a vast manicured landscape and fronting the idyllic Cha Am Beach, this candy-coloured mansion comprises three one-storey pavilions with lots of verandas, latticework and high ceilings as well as covered boardwalk, on more than 1,000 raised pillars. Thereafter, return to Bangkok Suvarnabhumi or Don Muang Airport for your onwards journey.
