Experience being a shepherd, bottle-feed a calf, pet or take pictures with the sheep; enjoy riding a pony; take part in fun yet romantic activities where couples can help each other to hang a key of love as a symbol of everlasting relationship; etc... << rides and activities at Santorini Park as well as Swiss Sheep Farm are optional, at own expense >> In the evening, head over to Cicada Market (weekend, Fri-Sun only) – a spacious open-air market that brings together a fun mix of food, a wide collection of noteworthy handcrafted items ideal for souvenirs as well as performing arts; OR enjoy a stroll around Hua Hin Night market for a fascinating insight into the local people's lifestyle where one can find countless stalls selling freshly cooked local delicacies as well as an overwhelming variety of local handicrafts, souvenirs as well as clothing.

Day 02 HUA HIN (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, start the day with a visit to Hua Hin Railway Station - one of Thailand's oldest railway stations with a long cultural heritage and unique architecture. Its splendid Royal Waiting Room used to be a royal pavilion at Sanam Chan Palace during the reign of King Rama IV which was relocated and rebuilt at Hua Hin Railway Station in 1968. Thereafter, continue on to Wat Huay Mongkol, home to the famous Giant Luang Phor Thuad statue, a Buddhist monk famed for his "miracles" and lived some 400 years ago. After lunch, explore Plearnwan - a vintage village containing two-storey wooden complexes of stylized old-fashioned shop houses, a reminiscent of those that once made up the Thai-Chinese neighbourhoods of Bangkok and Hua Hin. Wander around the classic charms of old Hua Hin and enjoy a little shopping for some local delicacies, vintage merchandise, retro souvenirs, etc...; before heading over to immerse in the charming and romantic ambience of The Venezia - a unique lifestyle shopping destination with over 360 stores offering a variety of fashion and accessories as well as trendy restaurants and pubs. This 73,600m<sup>2</sup> Venice-inspired theme shopping and attraction village also feature replicas of Venice's most symbolic landmarks such as The Bell Tower of San Marco, Piazza San Marco, Trevi Fountain as well as a 200-meter Grand Canal with the iconic Gondola ride that navigates around the village.
