Sample itinerary :

Day 01 _____ / TAOYUAN (No meal)

Upon your arrival in Taoyuan International Airport, you will be met by our local representative for your transfer to the selected hotel at Taoyuan for check-in. Rest of the day is free at leisure for you to explore the city.

Day 02 TAOYUAN / JIUFEN / PINGXI / HUALIEN (Breakfast, Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed on a sightseeing tour around the city visiting Chiang Kai-Shek Memorial Hall - a famous and impressive monument erected in memory of Chiang Kai-Shek, the former President of the Republic of China; followed by a little shopping for some local delicacies; before continuing on to the quaint little village of Jiufen, formerly a prosperous gold-mining town on the Northeast Coast of Taipei. With its closely built houses clinging onto the steep mountainsides, Jiufen continue to offer enchanting scenery, unique teahouse and fascinating glimpses into the lifestyles of the past. While you are there, do take the opportunity to sample the popular local delicacies such as the Beef Noodles, Fish Ball Soup as well as Taro and Sweet Potato Balls. Thereafter, visit Shifen Old Street - where one can experience lighting sky lanterns (on own expenses) and see the unique scene of trains running right through the old street filled with many houses which still retains the charm of yesteryear, souvenir shops as well as restaurants on both sides of the railway. Later in the afternoon, journey to Hualien via the longest tunnel in Taiwan - Hsuehshan Tunnel, and passing through the scenic Su-Hua Highway.

Day 03 HUALIEN / KENTING (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed on a walking tour around Taroko National Park, one of the eight national parks in Taiwan. Spanning across Taichung, Nantou and Hualien County in the eastern part of Taiwan, the park is famous for its spectacular Taroko Gorge as well as the scenic beauty of Liwu River. Explore Swallow Grotto Trail to enjoy the sights of Liwu River right below, the mysterious potholes on the marble cliff faces as well as the famous rock formation "Chieftain's profile rock" which looks like an Indian chief; and followed by a visit to Eternal Spring Shrine which commemorates those who died during the construction of the Central Cross-Island Highway. Spring water adjacent to the shrine flows all year round, thus making it a significant landmark of scenic beauty on the Central Cross-Island Highway. Thereafter, embark on an approximately 320-kilometres journey South of Hualien County to Kenting via the breathtaking East Rift Valley National Scenic Area. Often called the land of milk and honey, it is one of the most fertile and verdant areas on the island, comprising of green fields, tea plantations, orchards, pasture land and of course, the typical Asian rice fields. Upon arriving at Hengchun Town, head towards Kenting Street - also known as Kenting Night Market, the main road of Kenting changes into a splendid night market at sunset, offering a wide array of local delicacies, souvenir items as well as accessories.

Day 04 KENTING / KAOHSIUNG (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, enjoy a little sightseeing around Kenting National Park - established in 1982, it is Taiwan's first and only Tropical National Park which covers a total area of 33,268 hectares of land and maritime environments. Along the way, enjoy a photo stop at Sail Rock - a large rock offshore that has broken off from adjoining coastal cliffs and resembles a ship's sail from a distance; followed by a visit to Eluanbi Lighthouse - located at the southernmost tip of Taiwan, this landmark is also known as "The Light of East Asia" due to its strong optical power of light that can reach up to 20 miles. Thereafter, journey approximately 120 kilometres North of Kenting to Kaohsiung to visit Fo Guang Shan Buddha Memorial Centre - home to the last remaining Buddha's tooth relic which was presented by Tibetan Lama Kunga Dorje Rinpoche who has been protecting it after the destruction of its former home in Tibet's Namgyal Monastery; followed by Pearl Cultivation Centre where one can learn about how these exquisite jewels are cultivated and harvested. Next, enjoy some free time at Taroko Park - an 8.7-hectare venue that combines shopping, dining, sports facilities, a movie theatre, a roller-skating rink as well as an F1-level karting circuit licensed by Suzuka Japan in one single location; before heading over to the famous Liu He Night Market. Albeit small, this 138-stalls night market boasts a very rich display of Southern Taiwanese delicacies.

Day 05 KAOHSIUNG / NANTOU / TAICHUNG (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, journey approximately 200 kilometres North of Kaohsiung to the Sun Moon Lake National Scenic Area where the island's largest lake is located (lake cruise is optional, on own expense). This beautiful alpine lake is divided by the tiny Lalu Island, an ancient settlement of the Thao people and home of Pashala, their highest-ranking ancestral spirit. The eastern part of the lake is round like the sun while the western part is shaped like a crescent moon, hence, the name "Sun Moon Lake". On the northern shore of the lake, visit the beautiful Wenwu Temple with its "Year of Steps" - a flight of stairs with 366 steps that symbolizes the 366 days of the year, including the extra day in a leap year. Known as the "Stairway to Heaven" in the early days, these steps were the original entrance to the temple. Thereafter, visit the eye-catching Xiangshan Visitor Center which offers splendid views of Sun Moon Lake from atop a sleek modern structure that is dominated by a touch of zen and in perfect harmony with the its surroundings; before continuing on to Taichung with enroute stops along the way to enjoy a little shopping at Princess Mao's House - an aboriginal culture village offering traditional health food and honey bee products; and a Tea Culture Centre to learn about tea production process as well as the art of drinking Taiwanese Tea. In the evening, wander around Feng Jia Night Market - the largest and most popular night market in Central Taiwan featuring all kinds of mouth-watering and innovative Taiwanese snacks as well as fashionable clothing and accessories.

Day 06 TAICHUNG / TAIPEI (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, embark on your return journey back to Taipei with a midway stop to enjoy a couple of fun-filled hours at Window on China Theme Park - one of Taiwan's earliest Theme Parks and home to Jumbo Wave, the tallest water flume ride in Asia. The main attraction of the park is the five mini-worlds which host a collection of 133 miniature historical buildings and landmarks around the world. These miniatures are amazingly precise and painstakingly attention-to-detail, complete with sound and movements for a surreal experience. On arriving Taipei, proceed on a sightseeing tour of The Martyr's Shrine with its magnificent architecture that is similar to Taihe Dian Imperial Palace in Beijing, to view the elaborate hourly guard-changing ceremony; followed by a visit to Tian Lu Pixiu Culture Centre to learn more about Feng Shui and this mythical animal which is believe to bring wealth as well as good luck; and Taipei 101 - the first International Top Brand Shopping Mall in Taiwan where you can find a selection of International Trendy Fashion Brands, Luxury Boutiques as well as Gourmet Food. Taipei 101 also features an indoor as well as outdoor observatory (optional, on own expenses) which offers a 360-degree view of the city. Spend the rest of the afternoon bargain-hunting at the renowned Wufenpu Garment Wholesalers' district which is stuffed to the brim with inexpensive clothing as well as related adornments; before continuing on to Raohe Street Tourist Night Market, the oldest Night Market in Taiwan which boasts numerous delicious cuisines and various characteristic snacks which are renowned at home as well as abroad.

Day 07 TAIPEI (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, enjoy a walking tour around Shilin Official Residence, the former home of the late President Chiang Kai-Shek which has been restored to an ecological park with tree-lined paths, exquisite rose beds as well as expansive and elegant gardens; followed by a little shopping for some duty-free cosmetics at A-Plus; before continuing on to Tamsui, a laidback waterfront township North of Taipei which boasts many historical attractions and is a popular location for viewing the sunset. Visit the bustling Tamsui Old Street, a pedestrian friendly street with enormous array of food to tuck in as well as souvenirs to bring home. Located further downstream from the town is Tamsui Fisherman's Wharf which offers a boardwalk, chic coffee shops as well as seafood restaurants. In the evening, enjoy some last-minute shopping for local handicrafts, clothing, toys, local snacks, etc... at the famous Shihlin Night Market.

Day 08 TAIPEI / TAOYUAN / _____ (Breakfast)

After breakfast, free at leisure until it is time to transfer back to the airport for your onwards journey.
