Sample itinerary :

Day 01 _____ / TAOYUAN

(No meal)

Upon your arrival in Taoyuan International Airport, you will be met by our local representative for your transfer to the selected hotel at Taoyuan for check-in. Rest of the day is free at leisure for you to explore the city.

Day 02 TAOYUAN / PINGXI / JIUFEN / HUALIEN (Breakfast)

After breakfast, begin the day with an approximately 70 kilometres journey east of Taoyuan to visit Shifen Old Street – where one can experience lighting sky lanterns (on own expense) and see the unique scene of trains running right through the old street filled with many houses which still retains the charm of yesteryear, souvenir shops as well as restaurants on both sides of the railway; followed by a walking tour around the quaint little village of Jiufen, formerly a prosperous gold-mining town on the Northeast Coast of Taipei. With its closely built houses clinging onto the steep mountainsides, Jiufen continue to offer enchanting scenery, unique teahouse and fascinating glimpses into the lifestyles of the past. While you are there, do take the opportunity to sample the popular local delicacies such as the Beef Noodles, Fish Ball Soup as well as Taro and Sweet Potato Balls. Thereafter, continue on to Hualien via Hsuehshan Tunnel, the longest tunnel in Taiwan, and passing through the scenic Su-Hua Highway; and on arrival, head over to Dongdamen Tourist Night Market, the largest night market in Hualien which comprises of Futing Night Market where one can find delectable traditional Taiwanese snacks and entertaining street games; Street of China Cuisines that represents cuisines and handicrafts from Guangdong, Guangxi, Hebei, Hunan and Jiangxi Provinces; Street of Indigenous Cuisines with distinctive vibe and is dedicated to Taiwanese aboriginal delicacies and other gifts; as well as Zhiqiang Night Market which was relocated here a little later and features time-honoured stores.

Day 03 HUALIEN / TAITUNG (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed on a walking tour around Taroko National Park, one of the eight national parks in Taiwan. Spanning across Taichung, Nantou and Hualien County in the eastern part of Taiwan, the park is famous for its spectacular Taroko Gorge as well as the scenic beauty of Liwu River. Explore Swallow Grotto Trail to enjoy the sights of Liwu River right below, the mysterious potholes on the marble cliff faces as well as the famous rock formation "Chieftain's profile rock" which looks like an Indian chief; and followed by a visit to Eternal Spring Shrine which commemorates those who died during the construction of the Central Cross-Island Highway. Spring water adjacent to the shrine flows all year round, thus making it a significant landmark of scenic beauty on the Central Cross-Island Highway. Thereafter, continue approximately 150 kilometres south to Taitung, nicknamed the "Garden of Taiwan" due to its natural charms and fairytale-like scenic beauty. Visit the 150-meter-high Cave of Eight Immortals which is located on the cliff that faces the Pacific Ocean on the coast of Taitung, shaped by centuries of pounding waves; Explore Sanxiantai - an isolated islet few metres off the coast of Chenggong Township that is connected to the mainland by an iconic eight-arch footbridge and features a network of footpaths which provide great views of unique sea-eroded rock formations well as rare coastal vegetation; as well as Xiaoyeliu Scenic Area - a small coastline park well-known for its fascinating rock formations similar to those found at Yehliu Geopark on Taiwan's North Shore; before continuing on to Zhiben – one of the famous and oldest hot spring towns in Taiwan to enjoy a relaxing soak in Zhiben's acclaimed hot springs. << Please bring along your swimwear as well as swimming cap >>

Day 04 TAITUNG / KAOHSIUNG (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, visit Douliang Station – dubbed "the most scenic train station in Taiwan", it has ceased operations in 2006 but its viewing platform is still very lively and offers stunning panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean as well as the lush greenery of the surrounding mountains. Thereafter, continue west towards Kaohsiung to visit a Pearl Cultivation Centre where one can learn about how these exquisite jewels are cultivated and harvested; before crossing over to Cijin Island for a sightseeing tour visiting Cijin Windmill Park – a recreation wind farm consisting of 07 three-blades wind turbines which generate enough power to provide the park with four hours of illumination at night while generating wind for the public during the day and serves as the first scenic seaside spot visitors comes to after entering through Cijin's gates; Rainbow Church – a colourful chapel-like structure with the lovely view of Cijin Beach and the ocean as a backdrop that is popular for wedding-photo shoots; and Cijin Shell Museum which houses more than 2,000 kinds of shellfish specimens, including 03 kinds of living fossils; as well as explore the surrounding Miao Qian Street. Commonly referred to as "Seafood Street", this place is a smorgasbord of seafood restaurants that serve "fresh-from-the-sea" cuisine. In the evening, head over to Ruifeng Night Market – a bustling night market that has been favoured by the locals for over 20 years and offers a wide selection of mouth-watering local delicacies, clothing and accessories as well as a whirl of colourful funfair-style games.

Day 05 KAOHSIUNG / NANTOU / TAICHUNG (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, journey approximately 200 kilometres North of Kaohsiung to visit Chung Tai Chan Monastery which bears a striking resemblance to a mosque and is the second tallest Buddhist architecture in the world; and followed by the Sun Moon Lake National Scenic Area where the island's largest lake is located (lake cruise is optional, on own expense). This beautiful alpine lake is divided by the tiny Lalu Island, an ancient settlement of the Thao people and home of Pashala, their highest-ranking ancestral spirit. The eastern part of the lake is round like the sun while the western part is shaped like a crescent moon, hence, the name "Sun Moon Lake". On the northern shore of the lake, visit the beautiful Wenwu Temple with its "Year of Steps" – a flight of stairs with 366 steps that symbolizes the 366 days of the year, including the extra day in a leap year. Known as the "Stairway to Heaven" in the early days, these steps were the original entrance to the temple. Thereafter, continue on to Taichung with enroute stops along the way to enjoy a little shopping at an aboriginal culture village offering traditional health food and honey bee products; and a Tea Culture Centre to learn about tea production process as well as the art of drinking Taiwanese Tea. Browse around and enjoy a photo stop at Taichung Rainbow Village, a small village with vibrant, colourful murals painted on the remaining street and homes of former veterans; before heading over to Feng Jia Night Market – the largest and most popular night market in Central Taiwan featuring all kinds of mouth-watering and innovative Taiwanese snacks as well as fashionable clothing and accessories.

Day 06 TAICHUNG / TAIPEI (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, return to Taipei for a sightseeing tour of the city, visiting Chiang Kai-Shek Memorial Hall - a famous and impressive monument erected in memory of Chiang Kai-Shek; The Martyr's Shrine with its magnificent architecture that is similar to Taihe Dian Imperial Palace in Beijing, to view the elaborate hourly guard-changing ceremony; and Tian Lu Pixiu Culture Centre to learn more about Feng Shui and this mythical animal which is believed to bring wealth as well as good luck. Along the way, enjoy a little shopping for some local delicacies. Thereafter, continue on to Taipei 101 - the first International Top Brand Shopping Mall in Taiwan where you can find a selection of International Trendy Fashion Brands, Luxury Boutiques as well as Gourmet Food. Taipei 101 also features an indoor as well as outdoor observatory (on own expenses) which offers a 360-degree view of the city. Spend the rest of the afternoon bargain-hunting at the renowned Wufenpu Garment Wholesalers' district which is stuffed to the brim with inexpensive clothing as well as related adornments; before heading over to Raohe Street Tourist Night Market, the oldest Night Market in Taiwan which boasts numerous delicious cuisines and various characteristic snacks which are renowned at home as well as abroad.

Day 07 TAIPEI / TAOYUAN / _____ (Breakfast)

After breakfast, free at leisure until it is time to transfer back to the airport for your onwards journey.
