Continue on to visit Linh Phuoc Pagoda, a beautiful shrine intricately inlaid with pieces of mosaic, porcelain as well as pottery shards which is often referred to as the "pagoda of broken glasses" due to its 49-meter-long dragon at the entrance which was meticulously pieced together from 12,000 glass bottles. Thereafter, enjoy a photo stop at the charming Da Lat Railway Station which is regarded as one of the finest pieces of colonial engineering and architecture in Vietnam. Evening is free at leisure for you to explore the cool and misty highland, located approximately 1,500 meters above sea level.
